

RESEARCH PROJECTS: NUTRITION

Research Vision:

In partnership with our communities, lead a research agenda which improves health and wellbeing outcomes for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People, empowers people to reach their full potential and strengthen research and researcher capacity and capability.

Nutrition in Indigenous People – The best start to life for Indigenous Children 2020 – 2022

NHMRC Funded

Aim: To support community members to develop a community framework for addressing food insecurity, which sits within a Human Rights, Social Justice and Empowerment Agenda.

Principal Investigator: Dr Megan Ferguson, Uni of Queensland, Apunipima Chief Investigator – Ms Clare Brown and Professor Yvonne Cadet-James Partnership with Uni Queensland, Menzies School of Health Research, Monash Uni and Congress Aboriginal Corporation

Optimal Infant Nutrition Project 2020 - 2021

PHN Funded

Aim: Pilot best practice approaches in 2 communities to encourage optimal nutrition before, during and after pregnancy up to 1000 days of life.

Principal Investigator: Ms Clare Brown
Apunipima initiated and directed project

Healthy Communities Project

PHN Funded

Aim: To help create supportive environments working with Councils – tackling smoking and reducing sugary drinks.

Principal Investigator: Ms Clare Brown, Apunipima Cape York Health Council
Apunipima initiated and directed project

